

Speaking of your audience... let's talk list-building.
Which of the following best describes you?

I'm a list-building master with an active and engaged audience eager to hear from me.

I'm consistently and effectively working to build my list.

I'm starting from scratch and struggling to get anyone on my list beyond my mom.

I'm in the beginning stages (less than 250 subscribers) but I do have a course idea and enough expertise to get started!
